

- Invitation to Participate -
Mini Innovation Lab - Port Moresby

Thursday 14th November 2013 , 8:30am to 4:30pm

at INA – PNG Institute of National Affairs

2nd Floor, IPA Haus, corner Lawes road and Munidubu Street, Konedobu
(opp. Hubert Murray stadium and near the Aviat Club)

- Showcasing new media and technologies for social change and development.
- Hands on practical sessions on how ICTs can be used by NGOs in Papua New Guinea.
- Covering Mobile Phone Strategies (SMS, IVR, Surveys), Mapping and Data Visualisation, and Social Media.

This One Day Mini Innovation Lab, co-hosted by the Institute for National Affairs (INA) PNG and Internews Network will showcase how communications, new media and technologies can be used to address and solve development challenges.

Register via email: moale.sabadi@cimcpng.org and rachael.david@cimcpng.org or phone INA on +(675) 321 1045

Also, you can contact Emmanuel Narokobi on +(675) 721 82 751 for more information.

Internews is an international non-profit organization whose mission is to empower local media worldwide to give people the news and information they need, the ability to connect and the means to make their voices heard. See <http://www.internews.org> for more. The Institute for National Affairs (INA) is a privately funded, non-profit research institute or "think tank" based in Port Moresby. See <http://www.inapng.com/> for more.