

EITI-Training in PNG – Draft programme
23rd-24th of September 2015, Port Moresby

Day 1: Defining a civil society agenda for PNG EITI

Expected output

- PNG Resource Governance coalition is officially in place with governance charter and elected Council
- Participants have a better understanding of the regulatory regime that applies to the oil, gas and mining sector in PNG
- Participants know what to expect from the first EITI reconciliation report
- Participants have defined a set of civil society priorities to be included in the work plan of the MSG For 2016
- Civil society participation in the EITI over the past year has been assessed

Time Sessions	Content of Session	Speaker (s)	Facilitator(s) or chair
8:30- 9:00	Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - introductions by PWYP - participants introduce themselves - presentation of content and expected outcome of workshop 	Asmara, Bantay Kita representative, all participants	Mr Thomas Paka (PNG EFF), PNG EITI Member
9:00-10:00	Presentation and adoption of the coalition governance charter	Wallis + Maya (?)
10:00-10:15	Coffee Break
10:15-11:30	The extractive sector in PNG: regulatory regime <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 	Mick Walter (TIPNG) and Roger Gunson (MRA)	Mr Paul Barker, INA & PNG EITI Member
11:30-13:00	Election of the Coalition Council <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - candidates present themselves - ballot vote - group picture 	Mr Martin Brash, Independent Actor
13:00-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:00	Overview on PNG EITI work & update (EITI scoping study: what information can we expect to be published in the first EITI report? (+Q&A)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Lucas Alkan – PNG EITI Secretariat; - Ernest & Young (Independent Administrator); - John Moore, Private Sector View 	Mr Martyn Namorong, PNGRGC Coalition member
15:00-15:15	Coffee break
15:15-16:00	Assessment of MSG representatives' performance over the past year : finding ways to improve civil society's influence on the EITI agenda		All (facilitation by Asmara)
16:00-17:00	Define civil society priorities that will be reflected in the 2016 national EITI work plan		All (facilitation by Asmara)
19:00-20:30	Collective dinner		CIMC/PNGRGC

Proudly supported by the Publish What You Pay Secretariat

Day 2: Contract transparency and Communicating the EITI

Expected outputs

- Participants are informed about the communications plan and material prepared by civil society
- Participants learn about the experience of working with local communities in the Philippines and Indonesia
- Participants have mapped the interests of their different audiences and have adapted their messaging

Time Sessions	Content of Session	Speaker (s)	Facilitator(s)
09:00-11:00	Engagement on EITI at the community level: lessons learnt from the Philippines and Indonesia	Me-ann (Bantay Kita) Meliana (PWYP Indonesia)	Ms Emily Taule (TIPNG), Member of PNG EITI
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break
11:30-12:30	Presentation of the communications plan + materials	Ms Lydia Kaia, Communications specialist
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-15:15	Group work: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Definition of key advocacy messages for the road shows - Identification of different target audiences (+stakeholder canvassing) - Division of labour among coalition members for awareness raising 		All (facilitation by Asmara)
15:15-15:45	Coffee break
15:45-17:15	CLOSING 1. Formal Launching of PNG Resource Governance Coalition Inc 2. Media Panel and Closing remarks: Panel discussion with partners on the role of the new PNG Resource Governance Coalition in pushing for sectoral reforms. How do CSO members intend to use information on royalty payments to landowner groups in their campaigns? What elements of the EITI Standard that are encouraged but not required would be of highest relevance to CSOs' strategy in 2016?	Steffi Stallmeister (World Bank), US Embassy British High Commission Lucas Alkan (EITI National Coordinator), Mr Paul Barker (INA/CIMC/PNGRGC) Ms Emily Taule, TIPNG & PNGRGC Regional Rep

Proudly supported by the Publish What You Pay Secretariat